Let's Keep Appomattox Growing!!

A friend of ours has been living in Appomattox not too long as the quickly passing years go. But the other day he sat down and counted the number of new homes and buildings in and around the Town of Appomattox that have gone up since he has been here. He told us he made a list of over 300. That is testimony to a growing community. And wherever you find a growing community, you will find basic reasons for its growth. In Appomattox these reasons are to be found in the fundamental soundness of the economy of this trade area and the fact that there are good jobs and good business opportunities. No town is better or worse than the trade area it serves. Appomattox is the natural trading center for a splendid area in Central Virginia, where there are good farms and good farmers; where there are nice payrolls and where the growth has been steady and solid.

You will find that the business places listed on this page are in the forefront of those pledged to make it good business for you to do business in Appomattox. Our banks, our automotive agencies, our farm service stores, our building and timber dealers, our outstanding institutions all WANT to serve you as friends and neighbors. That's the place to do business: with those who serve you today so you will want to return for your needs tomorrow and the day after to your trusted friends.

There are many challenges and opportunities in the fast-moving times in which we live and serve. None is greater than the challenge and the opportunity to make America Strong at the Grass Roots . . . in the Towns and communities such as Appomattox which are the solid base of our nation. Trade in Appomattox. Do Business in Appomattox. Grow with and for Appomattox.

What To See At Old Appomattox Court House —

McLean House. In the parlor of the home of Wilmer McLean, now restored, Gens. Robert E. Lee and Ulysses S. Grant signed the Peace ending the Civil War, April 9, 1865.
National Park Service Museum. Located in the restored Hix Tavern. Contains original flag of truce and many historical relics. Also the famous Guillaume oil painting of Surrender Scene.
Old County Jail. Original brick jail still standing in old court house circle.
Restored Meeks-Plunkett House, Peers House, and other historic buildings.
Site of the "Appla Tree." Where Lee rested awaiting meeting with Grant.
Original Tree under which Lee stood to bid farewell to the Army of Northern Virginia.
Gravesite of the famous minstrel, Joe Sweeney, just beyond Memorial Bridge over Appomattox River.
Confederate Cemetary, site of Lee's headquarters, North Carolina Monument and other historic spots.
